

CRISISX: THE READINESS CONFERENCE 2021 SCHEDULE

MONDAY 15th FEBRUARY 2021

- 11:00am REGISTRATION OPENS
TEA & COFFEE AVAILABLE
PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOPS
- 11:30am Pre-Conference LIVE Cyber Breach Simulation
Ahead of the conference proper, delegates are invited to participate in a quick-fire live cyber breach simulation canvassing the pros and cons of key decisions when faced with a major cyber security event
- 12:00pm Pre-Conference Case Study – Meghan & Harry
We critically analyse Meghan & Harry's MEGXIT announcement in January 2020, as well as the subsequent fall-out and worldwide reaction. Could this have been avoided and what can be learnt?
- 12:50pm WELCOMING LUNCH
CONFERENCE BEGINS
- 1:20pm Conference Opening – The Window of Opportunity
Event director Dallas Gurney opens CrisisX by canvassing the biggest single mistake organisations make in times of crisis – not recognising they're in the middle of one until it's too late and the "Window of Opportunity" to affect the outcome has closed
- 1:50pm NZI Keynote Speaker – Rt Hon Sir John Key
The former Prime Minister talks about his experience leading the country through the Christchurch Earthquakes, Global Financial Crisis and other significant crisis events
- 2:50pm AFTERNOON TEA
- 3:10pm Keynote Speaker – Deborah Thomas
The former CEO of Ardent Leisure, shares her learnings from crisis in conversation with facilitator Nadine Higgins
- 4:10pm Simulation Preview & How It Works
A preview of what's to come tomorrow with our interactive crisis simulation, some tips on navigating the scenario and how the on-table technology and our simulation system works
- 4:20pm NZME Expert Panel – Navigating the Storm
Our panellists discuss their experience in the middle of a crisis storm and how best to make calm, rational decisions in the heat of the moment – facilitated by Nadine Higgins
- 5:10pm HP NETWORKING DRINKS
- 5:30pm Fireside Chat – Flight Centre MD David Coombes
A conversation with the boss of Flight Centre, David Coombes. No category was hit by COVID-19 as hard as the travel industry. How did one of New Zealand's biggest travel agents cope when revenue ground to a halt? Everything they knew as normal changed in March 2020, we talk about the decisions they made, how they coped and the future of New Zealand's inbound and outbound travel sectors. With facilitator Trudi Nelson
- 6:30pm DAY CONCLUDES

TUESDAY 16th FEBRUARY 2021

8:30am TEA & COFFEE AVAILABLE
DAY 2 BEGINS

8:45am Simulation Setup & Simulation Phase 1
The first phase of our simulation is revealed with teams having to identify, then navigate through, an unprecedented crisis event

9:40am Learning Session 1
We talk through the decisions made by teams during phase one, uncovering key learnings while exploring real-life crisis examples from companies who have been through it before

10:05am Simulation Session 2
The second phase of our simulation sees escalations in the crisis with many distractions attempting to blow teams off course

10:45am MORNING TEA

11:00am Learning Session 2
We look at how teams approached the second phase of the simulation and talk about the various takeaways from that second session

11:25am Palo Alto Networks Keynote Speaker – Peter Bradley
The CEO of St John talks about how emergency services prepare and organise themselves for, often life-or-death, crises. Peter discusses his experiences in New Zealand with various recent emergency situations, as well as in London where he was CEO of London Ambulance Service during the 7/7 terrorist attacks. What has he seen? Where do organisations get it wrong?

12:20pm LUNCH

1:00pm Simulation Session 3
In this phase, teams need to contend with a catastrophic and surprising change in direction, broadening the impact of the incident

1:35pm Learning Session 3
We learn together from the different experiences' teams have had navigating the major escalation in phase three of the simulation

2:00pm HP Elective Panel
“Surviving a Cyber Security Disaster”
Our expert panel talks about how to be ready for the inevitable, a cyber security attack resulting in a privacy breach or irretrievable data loss.
With facilitator Nadine Higgins

NZI Elective Panel
“What Should Keep You Awake at Night”
Our expert panel discusses the most likely causes of crisis and how to mitigate the risk of these events happening to your organisation. With facilitator Trudi Nelson

3:00pm AFTERNOON TEA

3:20pm Simulation Session 4
Things take another unexpected twist, meanwhile the public and key stakeholders start to take issue with your handling of the situation

4:00pm Learning Session 4
In our final learning session, we bring together the 10 CrisisX principles and establish techniques which will help you continue your learning back at the office.

4:20pm Simulation Leaderboard & Final Remarks

4:30pm DAY #2 CONCLUDES
